

Bentley Career Success Equity Program

Conversation Starter for Manager-Participant Monthly Meeting

Session #1: Best Self: My Passions and Career Goals

Key Takeaways:

- Identifying personal motivators/passions and career goals is critical for a successful and rewarding career path.
- Our passions and motivators are key elements for job satisfaction -- what are key passions and motivators you discovered in your Life Decades Reflections exercise?
- Our Superpower provides the internal resilience and inspiration to keep going, even in difficult situations, to achieve our goal – how has your Superpower aided you in the past?
- Connecting your passions and superpower to your work at Bentley University is key to job satisfaction and career growth. Take time to consider these elements in your Accountability Partner meetings and in your Manager Meetings.

Conversation Starters -- Managers to Participants:

- What new discovery or confirmation did you make regarding your passions, motivators, and Superpower?
- How did you connect / were you able to connect your passions, motivators, and Superpower to your current job at Bentley University?
- Making the link between one's passion / motivator / Superpower to your current job is key to job satisfaction. Where are you making the "link"?
